Chamber to present State of the Community Luncheon

The Redlands Chamber of Commerce will sponsor the Annual State of the Community Luncheon, Wednesday,

July 20th, 12:00 PM at the Orton Center, University of Redlands. Mayor Pete Aguilar will address the community explain the budget, council focus, plans for the future and take questions from the floor.

“This event is an excellent opportunity for our Mayor and civic leaders as well as city staff to meet with the citizens and business leaders of Redlands and share their collective vision both immediate and long term.” said Peter Lehmann, Chamber President. “Following the adoption of the City’s 2011/2012 budget it is of particular interest to learn how our city leaders will meet the fiscal challenges that lie ahead.”

The cost of the luncheon is $30 per person, reservations are needed. For more information call 7932546.

Chamber launches Young Professionals Network

The Redlands Chamber launches a brand new program for Young Professionals. For the next generation of business professionals ages 18 to 41 the Chamber offers the Young Professionals Network a social networking, professional development, volunteer opportunity for ambitious young professionals.

As the leading organization of its kind in the area membership in the Young Professionals Network (YPN) will help the next generation of business leaders to develop their leadership skills build networks and give back to the community.” said Chamber President Elect Paul Barich. “YPN members won’t just come to events to trade business cards and walk away. They are going to find themselves in a place where they will build lasting friendships, share big ideas and invest in the future of Redlands.”

The cornerstone of the YPN will be monthly meetings where members and guests from diverse background representing many areas businesses from small to large will come together to share ideas, discuss critical business issues and learn from one another.

Mentors will share experiences and experts will reveal tried and true methods for success.

YPN Members will receive educational opportunities that are otherwise difficult to obtain.

Being a part of the Young Professionals Network will prepare the next business generation to receive the torch and take on the leadership roles in the community equipped with the skills and tools necessary for success.

For more information about the program call the Chamber office at 793-2546.
