Redlands Chamber LIVE is back

Is your Holiday shopping list complete? Do you want to shop from the comfort of home? Then sit back turn on the TV if you're a Time Warner subscriber or Verizon Fios customer or login to Redlandschamberlive.com. and let the buying begin. The 19th annual Redlands Chamber cable TV auction goes on the air Friday, November 19, 6 – 10 PM and Saturday, November 20th, 4 – 10 PM on channel 3 Time Warner & Verizon Fios channel 35. Thanks to the Clean PC you can log on the Redlandschamberlive.com and watch the program on your computer. Cosponsored by Time Warner and the Redlands Daily Facts the long running program showcases local businesses that cater to local customers.

The eleven hour show is divided into 15 minutes segments and offers an array of products and services ranging from the latest toys to restaurant certificates, jewelry, house wares and more all provided by local businesses. During the segments home shoppers phone in bids live, at the end of each segment the highest bidder is notified and the fun starts all over again with the next items up for auction.

Watch for a full page catalogue listing all the products and services that will be offered for auction November 19th and 20th in the Sun and the Daily Facts on Wednesday November 17th. Find your way to the most comfortable chair in your house right in front of the TV or computer and pick up your phone and get ready to shop.

Kicking off the holiday shopping season the program features local businesses with products and services that can be purchased right here in the city. Supporting local businesses is important to our quality of life in Redlands. Through Redlands Chamber LIVE the Chamber is demonstrating that Redlands provides a wide array of products and services reminding home shoppers to remember to shop Redland first this holiday season.

Pin-Ups For Vets, Inc. a new twist on an old idea

Pin-Ups For Vets, a Redlands based non-profit organization, proudly enters its 5th year of outstanding service to our Nation's hospitalized Veterans and deployed military service members. This award-winning calendar fundraiser, founded by Inland Empire native and UCLA grad, Ms. Gina Elise, takes its inspiration from the pin-up calendars of the 1940's that helped boost morale for the troops fighting overseas during WWII. The calendar fundraiser, that supports under-funded health care programs for our Nations heroes in VA and military hospitals, also honors the WWII Army service of the founder's grandfather. In addition to raising funds and making yearly donations to support and improve health care for our ill and injured Veterans, Ms. Elise has made thousands of personal bedside visits to cheer up Veterans and recovering troops in hospitals across the U.S. by delivering the Pin-Ups for Vets calendars, "Kiss A Vet" T-shirts, and posters, donated by the charity's loyal supporters around the world.

Ms. Elise has also become a spokesperson to encourage others to volunteer at their local VA hospitals. Besides boosting morale for our hospitalized Veterans, Ms. Elise also ships hundred of care packages, filled with the donated Pin-Ups For Vets appreciation gifts to our deployed troops around the world the troops have reciprocated their appreciation by flying 8 American flags over military bases during combat missions to honor the charitable work by Ms. Elise. The Pin-Ups for Vets organization has been honored with community service awards by the CA Jaycees Foundation, the CA Jr. Chamber of Commerce, the Daily Points of Light Foundation, and the Los Angeles Business Journal. This special Veterans project has appeared in American Legion Magazine, Stars and Stripes, the Sun Newspaper, the Boston Herald, on Fox News Los Angeles, on Time Warner Cable TV, and in many other national media outlets.
